

HOST RAP SHEET

June 12 – 25, 2026

This week's recognition goes to Patty Preston. Jean sent Anna this lovely note. ;Patty] picked me up at my hotel at 5:30 AM to take me to [hospital care]. When I was admitted she checked me out of the hotel, brought my car and stuff to my room and visited the next day with cookies from the best bakery in San Diego. I think that's above and beyond. Thank you, Patty!

Mammoth Way Hot Topic – Be Professional

As we start full summer operations, remember you are experts. Provide guests with details on finding the best experiences!

Answer the following to enter the Rap Sheet drawing. Send an answer, via e-mail, to host@mammothresorts.com, listing the hiking trails on the mountain from easiest to hardest. Use Hiking Trails | Mammoth Mountain to find the answer. Enter for a chance to win $10 Mammoth Bucks. Judy Smith is this week's winner!

Safety Corner – Hot Topics for Host Safety

Sudden Cardiac Arrest and AEDs

Health and Safety launched our new layperson AEDs at various locations throughout the resort.

Bring an AED and First Aid Kit to any medical emergency in your facility or its surrounding.

Ensure the emergency number (760-934-0611) or Ski Patrol has been called. Use an AED when the patient is Unconscious, not breathing or not breathing normally, has no pulse or other signs of circulation. AEDs are easy to use. Only two steps: Turn it on. Do what it tells you. AEDs are placed at:

• Mammoth Mountain Inn Front Desk • Mammoth Mountain Inn Pool	• Tamarack Lodge Front Desk
• Village Lodge Front Desk	• Juniper Springs Lodge Front Desk
• Camp High Sierra	• Staff Accommodations
• Sierra Star Golf Course	• The Garage
• Team Headquarters	• Compressor House
