

HOST RAP SHEET

December 20 - 26, 2024

Recognition

This week's recognition goes to Eve MacHale for all the hours of planning that she put into Night of Lights. All the Hosts knew where they were supposed to be and what they were supposed to be doing. She made sure there were no gaps in coverage, despite never being a supervisor at Night of Lights before. She took initiative and determined the needs with limited guidance. She did a great job working with other departments and made sure our supervisors knew exactly what would happen and what they needed to tell their hosts. Great job, Eve. We all appreciate your hard work!

Mammoth Way Hot Topic – Be Helpful

Expect many new guests this week and next. Being professional and knowledgeable leads to being helpful, a key driver in creating amazing experiences for all. Expect many guests to ask the same question – remember each guest is asking the question for their first time.

Answer the following to enter the Rap Sheet drawing. Send an answer, via e-mail, to host@mammothresorts.com, describing the New Year's Eve celebrations available around our area. Use this link, Mammoth Mountain New Year's Eve celebrations to find the answer. Reply with the answer for a chance to win $10 Mammoth Bucks. Dean Myring won last week's contest!

Safety Corner – Hot Topics for Host Safety

Be safe – Be seen!

The shortest day of the year is upon us and so is weather. It is critical to make yourself as visible as possible whenever you are walking around outside when it is dark or stormy. Loaders, trucks, and guest vehicles are often on the road and in our parking lots. Do your part by wearing lights or carrying them. Use your cell phone light if you do not have a flashlight. Wear reflective clothing, make eye contact with drivers and walk smart, utilizing sidewalks whenever possible. And stay sober. Your reflexes are your friends.
